

Active Dorset CIC Equality Policy

Active Dorset CIC Equality Policy

Reviewed: May 2020

Next Review due: May 2021

1. Policy Objectives

- 1.1 Active Dorset is fully committed to equality and is responsible for ensuring that no job applicants, members of staff, board members, volunteers, service providers or participants (the “Stakeholders”) are unlawfully discriminated against because of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation, together the “Protected Characteristics” as detailed in the Equality Act 2010.
- 1.2 In addition, Active Dorset recognises that we live in a diverse society and will endeavour to ensure that all stakeholders are given the same opportunities regardless of their socio-economic backgrounds. Equality and diversity in the workplace are good practice and makes business sense.
- 1.3 Active Dorset will encourage partner organisations and stakeholders to adopt and demonstrate their commitment to the principles and practice of equality as set out in this Equality Policy.
- 1.4 This Equality Policy represents Active Dorset’s commitment to implement The Equality Standard: A Framework for Sport (2016) and equality legislation and provides the minimum standards which can be expected from Active Dorset.

2. Purpose

- 2.1 Active Dorset recognises that individuals and/or groups in our society who share one or more protected characteristics may not have been able to participate equally and fully in sports and physical activities. In some instances, this may have been as a result of unlawful discrimination.
- 2.2 This policy will help prevent and address any unlawful discrimination or other unfair treatment, whether intentional or unintentional, direct or indirect, against Stakeholders that may preclude them from working or participating fully in sport and physical activity. This includes but is not restricted to training, competing, refereeing, organising, volunteering, coaching, selecting etc.

3. Legal Requirements

Active Dorset CIC Equality Policy

- 3.1 Active Dorset is required by law not to unlawfully discriminate against its Stakeholders and recognises its legal obligations under, and will abide by the requirements of, the Equality Act 2010, and any equivalent legislation (as amended) in any UK jurisdiction and any later amendments to such legislation or subsequent equality related legislation that may be relevant to Active Dorset.
- 3.2 Active Dorset will seek advice each time this Policy is reviewed to ensure it continues to reflect the current legal framework and good practice.

4. Discrimination, harassment, bullying and victimisation

Active Dorset recognises the following as being unacceptable:

- 4.1 Direct Discrimination: treating someone less favourably than you would treat others because of one or more Protected Characteristics.
- 4.2 Indirect Discrimination: applying a provision, criterion or practice which, on the face of it, applies equally to all but which, in practice can disadvantage individuals with a particular Protected Characteristic. Such requirements or conditions are lawful only if they can be objectively justified.
- 4.3 Harassment: engaging in unwanted conduct relating to a relevant Protected Characteristic or unwanted conduct of a sexual nature where the conduct has the purpose or effect of violating the recipients dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for the recipient, or any other individual affected by such conduct. Active Dorset is committed to ensuring that its Stakeholders are able to conduct their activities free from harassment.
- 4.4 Bullying: the misuse of power or position to criticise persistently or to humiliate and undermine an individual's confidence.
- 4.5 Victimisation: subjecting someone to a detriment because he or she has in good faith taken action under the Equality Act 2010 (or equivalent legislation) by bringing proceedings, giving evidence or information in relation to proceedings, making an allegation that a person has contravened the Equality Act 2010 (or equivalent legislation) or doing any other thing for the purpose of or in connection with the Equality Act 2010 (or equivalent legislation).
- 4.6 Active Dorset regards discrimination, harassment, bullying or victimisation, as described above, as serious misconduct. All complaints will be taken seriously and appropriate measures including disciplinary action may be brought against any Stakeholder who unlawfully discriminates against, harasses, bullies or victimises any other person, Further, sexual harassment may amount to both an employment rights matter and a criminal matter, such as in sexual assault allegations. In addition, harassment under the Protection from

Harassment Act 1997 – which is not limited to circumstances where harassment relates to a protected characteristic – is a criminal offence.

5. Reasonable Adjustments

- 5.1 When any decision is made about an individual, the only personal characteristics that may be considered are those that are consistent with any relevant legislation and are relevant to the substance of the decision being made
- 5.2 Active Dorset recognises that it has a duty to make reasonable adjustments for disabled persons. Active Dorset will consider all requests and will work with disabled Stakeholders to implement any adjustments that will enable them to participate more fully in sports and physical activity.

6. Transgender

Active Dorset will support transgender people to participate in sports and physical activity of their choice.

7. Responsibility, Implementation and Communication

7.1 The following responsibilities will apply:

- 7.1.1 The Active Dorset Board is responsible for ensuring that this Equality Policy is implemented, followed, and reviewed when appropriate. The Board is also responsible for ensuring that this Equality Policy is enforced and any breached are dealt with appropriately.
- 7.1.2 The Board will accept responsibility as a whole for equality and will ensure that equality is included as an agenda item at Board meetings when appropriate and that equality issues are taken into consideration when making decisions.
- 7.1.3 The Chief Executive has the overall responsibility for the implementation of this Equality Policy.
- 7.1.4 A member of staff will be designated as the Equality Officer by the Chief Executive and will have the overall day-to-day responsibility for the implementation of this Equality Policy and for achieving any equality related actions resulting from it. The Equality Officer's work programme will reflect this. If required, an internal and/or external equality group will be created to provide additional support.
- 7.1.5 All Stakeholders have the responsibility to respect, follow and promote the spirit and intentions of this Equality Policy. Individual work programmes for Active Dorset staff members will be amended to include equality related tasks where appropriate.

Active Dorset CIC Equality Policy

7.2 This Equality Policy will be implemented immediately following Board approval.

Implementation requires the following actions:

7.2.1 Active Dorset will regularly review its employment practices to ensure continuing compliance with relevant legislation, and where possible good practice. All job packs issued by Active Dorset will contain a policy statement similar to the following:

“Active Dorset is committed to providing equal opportunities for all and is committed to following best practice in the welfare of young people and vulnerable adults. For further information please contact info@activedorset.org”

7.2.2 No applicant for any post (including job applicants, consultant advisers and suppliers) will be placed at a disadvantage by requirements or conditions which are not necessary to the performance of the job or which constitute unlawful discrimination.

7.2.3 Consultants and advisers (and where appropriate suppliers) to Active Dorset will be required to abide by this Equality Policy and it will be referred to in any service level agreements or contracts issued by Active Dorset.

7.3 This Equality Policy will be communicated in the following ways:

7.3.1 The Policy will be included in any employee handbook. Reference will be made to this Equality Policy in any code of conduct. This Equality Policy is for guidance only and will not form part of any contract of employment with any employees of Active Dorset.

7.3.2 The Policy will be highlighted in all staff and volunteer inductions.

7.3.3 A copy of this Equality Policy will be publicly available on the Active Dorset website and copies in other formats can also be requested from Active Dorset, Slades Pavilion, Ensburry Avenue, Bournemouth, BH10 4HG. All members will be made aware of the policy when they join.

7.3.4 Each time this policy is reviewed, Active Dorset Stakeholders will be consulted. Following consultation, a notice of the changes being made will be publicly available and a direct communication will be sent to all those who contributed to the consultation process (subject to Data Protection provisions); and

7.3.5 Active Dorset will promote continuing professional development for all employees and volunteers to support equal opportunities within the organisation and, where appropriate, provide specialist facilities, equipment or training.

8. Actions

Active Dorset CIC Equality Policy

- 8.1 Active Dorset will produce, maintain and monitor an Equality Action Plan to ensure the objectives of this Equality Policy are consistently delivered throughout all areas of the organisation.
- 8.2 Active Dorset recognises that, in some cases, to further the principle of equality, an unequal distribution of resources maybe required. If appropriate and proportionate, Active Dorset will consider positive action or may introduce special measures to assist any group with a Protected Characteristic which is currently underrepresented within any group of Stakeholders.

9. Monitoring and Evaluation

- 9.1 This Equality Policy will remain in force until it is amended, replaced or withdrawn. A review of this Equality Policy will take place as and when required, by not less than once every three years.
- 9.2 The Equality Action Plan, created to ensure the objectives of this Equality Policy are delivered, will be reviewed by the Chief Executive and the Equality Officer regularly, but in any event not less than once every 12 months.
- 9.3 On an annual basis, statistical and, if appropriate qualitative, information will be collected, and a report will be produced by the Chief Executive for the Board. Once approved by the Board the report will be published internally and externally, to show the impact of this Equality Policy and progress towards achieving the Equality Action Plan.

10. Complaints Procedures

Any Stakeholder who believes they have suffered inequitable treatment within the scope of the policy may raise the matter through the appropriate procedure. An individual raising an employee grievance will not be penalised for doing so unless it is untrue and not made in good faith. The final point of appeal relating to this policy is the Board appeals committee.
